Should we happen to be bucket bowl agents, referred to in the "BREATH OF HOT AIR", appearing in a former issue of this paper, we wish to assure our many friends that we certainly are NOT AFRAID OF SQUIRT GUN competition. On the contrary, we are pleased at every opportunity to install the by the side of any separator on the market, and demonstrate its superiority in clean skimming, ease of operation, ease of washing, simplicity, and separator practicability in general. However we must admit that the DE LAVAL does not have the HOT AIR PLUMB BOB attachment to deceive the prospective buyer, in trying to draw his attention away from what a separator really is for. PLUMB BOBS are cheap. Have one on us.

MISS JONES

Winner of Piano in Percy & Coleman's Contest.

Close of Union Store Company's Contest Postponed to November 10th—Dawson's Contest in Full Blast.

The piano popularity contest of Percy and Coleman at Middletown came to a close Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Miss Elizabeth Jones was declared the winner of the first prize with the exceedingly large vote of 1,067,350. Miss Dorris Roman finished second with a total of 1,000,000 votes to her credit. Miss Elizabeth Tharp was third with 252,100 votes and Miss Lucetta Tatchell fourth with 191,965. Miss Anna Love Mason received the fifth prize, she having 137,555 votes.

All of these young ladies are among the most popular and attractive of that community and all had supporters up to the last day of the contest. Just a few hours before the close it was evened that for a while some of the most popular of the young ladies were either Miss Jones or Miss Roman and great excitement prevailed. Ballots which had been held back for weeks came in by the thousands and no one could pick the winner until the final count was made. Miss Roman made a splendid race and deserves much credit for receiving over a million votes, but with all this she could not overcome the large vote of Miss Jones. At the close everybody seemed to be satisfied with the way the contest was conducted.

It is reported that the friends of Miss Roman on account of the splendid race she ran, will make up the difference between the amount of the due-bill on a piano she received as second prize and the price of the piano and make her a present of it. This speaks well of her popularity as well as the loyalty of her many friends.

The official vote follows:
Elizabeth Jones.....1,067,350
Dorris Roman.....1,000,000
Elizabeth Tharp.....252,100
Lucetta Tatchell.....191,965
Anna Love Mason.....137,555
Willie May Hall.....39,850
Annie Poulter.....35,100
Lydia Hardy.....16,000
Ethel Jones.....16,250
Pessie Thomas.....1,000
Arva Miles.....1,000

Union Store Contest Postponed.

Owing to some complications developing with the firm from which the piano was purchased, the close of the contest of the Union Store Company has been postponed from November 1st to Thursday afternoon, Nov. 10, at 1 o'clock. Votes will be issued as heretofore up to that time. The vote will not be counted against the close. All contestants are working hard and the finish promises an exciting time from the fact that three or four young ladies are only a few votes apart. In order to show their appreciation of the good work done by the contestants, the Union Store Co. has announced that they will give two barrels of Obolski flour as a second prize and one barrel of this flour as third prize—in addition to the coupon prizes.

W. W. DAWSON.

The vote in W. W. Dawson's contest, London, is as follows:
Mrs. Alvin Price.....29,108
Emma Rothberger.....37,885
Muriel Walts.....27,350
Katie Fontaine.....1,600
Viola Louell.....9,500
Helen Simpson.....5,500
Reni Daugherty.....5,500
Margaret Ochsenr.....5,000
Miss Chittler.....4,000
Emma Rath.....3,900
Emma Orr.....3,500
Ethel Walker.....3,300
Virginia Wood.....2,800
Katie Seitz.....2,500

The above contest is moving along nicely with the popular young ladies working hard, but keeping the public in the dark. Only a few votes were turned in during the past week. It is said that there are a few "dark horses" in this race and that you may see some of these in the near future to the front before long. So if you have a friend in the contest get busy at once and help her out—don't let her slip if she is a little behind the leaders at this time.

News Notes and Comment Pertaining To Happenings Along Bardonia Pike—An Interesting Letter.

When melancholy days come round, And leaves turn brown and red, And when you take a comfort or a blanket to your bed, And when you stir up eggs, and milk and spice, And sugar and O. M.?

There's something that is equal to The good old pumpkin pie. Yes, we all know that the pumpkin season is now at hand—a very beautiful season, when nature robes the trees in various colors. Our city friends delight in spending the day in the country, gathering nuts, wild grapes, flowers and leaves and returning home at evening with baskets full to overflowing. Recently I heard quite an argument between two city friends discussing the merits of the pumpkin pie. One said it was a completely decked in red leaves, although the tree was a maple; the other said it was a maple, the pumpkin pie was given it because of the red leaves. Such mistakes are frequently made, but did it ever occur to you that some of our city friends do not know a frog from a mouse. I know a certain person visiting at this place who thought she was acquainted with the country life was much shocked to learn that potatoes grew to the vine under the ground, for she always thought they grew like tomatoes, the potatoes forming from the blossom. Now while city people are not acquainted with our ways, neither are some country folks acquainted in town, when Rueben comes to town, they can turn tables and have the laugh out on us. Two boys, in this neighborhood, had a happening, leading to Louisville six weeks ago. While passing one of the local theatres they read at the entrance, matinee 25c. According to see the play the braver of the two at last summoned courage and walking to the ticket seller, lay down 15 cents. Give me two, said the ticket seller. "Two what," was asked. "Two tickets, of course; don't they see sign in your door say two for fifteen cents. Explanations followed, and the boys, after collecting their thoughts, seeing they could not get bargain seats, paid admission and silently walked in, and I am positive that they enjoyed the play very much.

Will write a few items from all along the pike, and will say that at this place the potato crop is uncommonly good, several of the farmers here having a yield of thirty barrels per barrel. The year crop was beautiful, many trees breaking under the weight. Corn husking time is at hand and it might be, for only this evening did we have the first snow of the season, and it is no fun to eat "when the frost is on the pumpkin, and the snow is on the ground."

Mr. Coleman Ramsay and family, until recently of Keller's Lane, moved to the Kleiderer home in Bluefield last week. Mr. Ramsay has for some past eight or nine years been a faithful R. F. D. carrier on route eleven. He deserves special mention for the fact that he is a very long route and not altogether a pleasant road to travel. Yet he does no complaining, and we people ought to appreciate more his unflinching route. What did we do before his daily appearance? Now we look forward now to day awaiting his coming, and no more long trips to the post office once a week as in the days gone by.

The beautiful bungalow nearing completion at Fern Creek will soon be occupied by the owner, Mr. Winter and family.

Dr. H. P. Stivers is having a pretty four-room bungalow built on his farm near the fair ground lane.

Mr. and Mrs. Leon Lewis Miles and children have gone to Louisville for the winter and are at the Cherokee apartments.

Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Frederick, of the Taylorsville pike, are re-joining over the birth of a daughter, born Sunday, Oct. 23.

The blacksmith shop on the lot of Mr. George Groves is now completed and is opened by Mr. Will Greenwood for the present.

On Tuesday evening while bringing a load of potatoes from the field, Messrs. John and William Yann, prominent farmers of Bluefield, happened to take a serious accident when the wagon passing under a tree became entangled with a rope that was extended from one of the limbs, caught under the footboard, breaking the limb, which fell on the men causing them to fall to the ground. The collarbone of Mr. William Yann is fractured, while Mr. John Yann escaped with slight injuries.

Mrs. Theresa Dries and Mrs. John Henn, of Louisville, were visitors of Mrs. Herman Schneider Wednesday. A number of ladies from Bluefield entertained the coffee social at St. John's church, Louisville, Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Tipton and daughter, Lucille, until recently of Louisville, moved to their new bungalow on the Bardonia pike. Mr. Howard Groves, of Fern Creek, purchased the Thurban Home place recently and was seen Sunday in the near future.

A number of children in this neighborhood are reported ill of whooping cough.

Like the whooping cough—contagious—so it is here with the boys and their bicycles. Each and every boy must be possessed of a bicycle, and the lads are seen in groups riding all around the country. One young man, not being satisfied with one wheel, purchased two and was seen Sunday evening all along the pike, riding one, the other by his side. We don't know where he landed but supposed that he was taking one to his "best girl," as the wheel was for the "fairer sex."

Mrs. Florian Marsh, of Louisville, who was taken suddenly ill at the home of her aunt in Bluefield while on a prolonged visit, is now better and able to be out again.

A very pleasant surprise was given on Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Yann in honor of Mrs. Yann, who was quite unprepared to receive the party in any way. She was the recipient of a lovely music cabinet, presented to her by the jury council that participated in the event. A bounteous dinner was served, music enjoyed and all had a good time. Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. Herman Heskamp, Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Fegenbush, Mrs. Herman Schneider, Mrs. Lottie Marsh, Mrs. John Yann, Mrs. W. Yann, Misses Freda Schneider, Margaret Heskamp, Ada Fegenbush, Lucille, Ida, Allen and Esther Yann; Messrs. William Garbandt, Mr. Hettinger, David Kaffie, Herman and Edw. Heskamp and Carl Yann.

Mr. and Mrs. B. Mayer and sons, Messrs. Archibald and Oliver Mayer, spent Sunday afternoon with Mr. H. Schneider and family.

Mr. and Mrs. August Kasper and children, of Dupont's Point, were the guests of Mr. H. Henn on Sunday.

Messrs. Fred Rothberger, Albert Stocker, Fred Becker and Clarence McCarran, of Louisville, visited Misses Mamie and Tressie Heil Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Van Finley, of near Wilsonville, Mr. and Mrs. Claude Vasech, of Elk Creek, and Miss Winnie Clark were the guests Sunday of Mr. J. B. Reed and family.

Medames Lee and Hickman Harkins spent Wednesday with Mrs. S. B. Clark and daughters.

Mrs. Joe Knapp entertained several of her friends at dinner on Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Birdline Bridwell and daughter, Bessie, spent Sunday with relatives at Jeffersontown.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Spent Friday with Mr. Jacob Boston and family near here.

Mr. Bud Davis, of Rivals, was here on business one day this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Harris visited Mr. Van Davis and family at Rivals Tuesday.

Mrs. Theodore Hardman, of Louisville, is the guest of her sister, Miss Annie Reid.

We are sorry to report that there are several cases of whooping cough in the neighborhood at present.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Davis, of Rivals, visited their parents here Sunday.

Engagement of Popular Young Couples Announced—Social News and Mention of Lover's Lane Controversy.

St. Matthews, Oct. 31.—A shower of the "beautiful" Friday afternoon convinced us that "winter was here" everybody seemed disheartened, but we soon adapted ourselves to the situation—made big fires, put on extra coats and became resigned to the inevitable.

We are glad to welcome Mr. and Mrs. Smith, of Lexington, Va., to Springfield—a merry young couple, Mr. and Mrs. Smith, of Lexington, Va., and Mrs. H. Laird.

Mrs. Orlando Johnson invited several of her friends to spend Saturday with her, which will prove a red letter day in our memory forever. The hostess and her daughter left nothing undone for the enjoyment of their guests. Music, wit and humor was the program; neighborly interest and good fellowship followed. Finally a sumptuous dinner was served. I felt like Christmas had suddenly appeared, but we decided to call it Thanksgiving, because of the reunion of folks that had gradually drifted apart "trying to get all work done."

Ready lane (notable for depth of mud) is being piked at last, which will improve property in that vicinity.

Miss Alma Bauer gave a linen shower Monday, Oct. 31, in honor of Miss Florence Bauer, who is to be married soon to Mr. Ben Trout.

Mr. and Mrs. Addison Lee gave an entertainment last week to their young friends, the interesting feature being the announcement of the engagement of their sister, Miss Finley, to Mr. Ben Trout.

Miss Annie Heink entertained the Literary Suburban Club last Thursday. An interesting article was read on the "Recreation Problem in Cities," after which the mysteries of Halloween were introduced.

This is the year of jubilee with Mr. and Mrs. John Finley. They are re-joining over the arrival of a son, John Jr. It has been seven years since the last child was added to the family.

A most unfortunate affair occurred lately, attended with some hard feelings over the pike making in Lover's Lane, near O'Fallon. Probably the sentimental name of the road prompted a few of the property owners to a one-sided view of the matter. Squire Dorsey earnestly urged the best way of grading for the public good and least expense to county. But it seems even County Judges are biased at times, and really act contrary instead of with equity and justice as the oath declares. Consequently, it was left to arbitration.

ARE THEY AFRAID?

There are, in this neighborhood, agents for several "bucket bowl" cream separators. "Bucket bowl" separators are the kind with wide mouth bowls, full of parts, set on top of their spindles. These agents say, to farmers intending to buy a separator, "Look out for the Tubular," or "Don't try the Tubular," or "Beware of the Tubular." To hear them talk you would guess right away that is the best cream separator made, and these "bucket bowl" fellows are afraid of it. The Tubular surpasses every other separator in every particular, and you should take mighty good care you do see a Tubular before you buy a separator. We will be pleased to show you the latest Tubular and give you an illustrated catalog.

In Bad Fix

"I had a mishap at the age of 41, which left me in bad fix," writes Mrs. Georgia Usher, of Conyers, Ga.

"I was unconscious for three days, and after that I would have fainting spells, dizziness, nervousness, sick headache, heart palpitation and many strange feelings."

"I suffered greatly with ailments due to the change of life and had 3 doctors, but they did no good, so I concluded to try Cardui."

"Since taking Cardui, I am so much better and can do all my housework."

Take CARDUI

Entered as second-class matter June 11, 1907, at the postoffice at Jeffersontown, Kentucky under the Act of Congress of March 3, 1879.

Member of Kentucky Press Association and Eight District Publishers League.

THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 3, 1910.

Is Jefferson county to have better schools? Are our children to be as well educated as the city children? Vote for the bonding proposition.

WOMEN suffrage will be considered in four states at the election of next Tuesday. We're glad that it will not be considered in Kentucky as we are aginit—and don't want to leave home.

One thing that means more than anything else to the voters of Jefferson county when they cast their ballots next Tuesday is the referendum vote upon the bond issue for better schools. Vote for it yourself, and get your neighbor to do likewise.

Are you in favor of bonding Jefferson county for $500,000 to build a model school building in every locality of the county? Are you in favor of voting a tax of 10 cents on the $100 of taxable property to liquidate the debt? If so, vote for the proposition next Tuesday. Men will be at the polls to register your opinion in the matter, and if a majority of the voters want to have better schools by this method, and so indicate it by their vote, the matter will be taken up before the next General Assembly in order that we may legally vote upon the question. The vote will not be binding next Tuesday, so vote for the proposition even if you are dissatisfied.

YOU WILL FIND the Democratic nominee for Representative in Congress, Hon. Swagar Sherley, the better qualified to represent the Fifth district. He has had the experience, and by his ability as a Congressman has been placed in the front among the other Representatives of the country. He has done much for his district and is in a position now, if elected, to do more than ever. If a new man is elected, it will take him several years to get to the place where Mr. Sherley is now. And then, Mr. Sherley is a Democrat—and Congress is very much in need of a Democratic majority. If Uncle Joe Cannon is to be taken down from his position as Speaker of the House, where he has ruled with an iron hand for so long, the Democrats will have to do it. The people of the United States are tired of one man controlling the legislation of the country and it appears now that Mr. Cannon will have to step aside. The voters of Jefferson county also have a part in seeing that he is defeated. We can do it by electing Mr. Sherley. Judge McGee is, doubtless, a good man, and we believe he is, but he is not Congressional timber.

Of course, the readers of this paper who are entitled to vote can vote as they please—we are not trying to dictate—but we have a right to our opinion, and that opinion is that it would be a fatal mistake to defeat Mr. Sherley.

JUDGE SHACKELFORD MILLER.

Judge Shackelford Miller, the Democratic candidate for Judge of the Court of Appeals, has been long and intimately known to the people of Jefferson county. His father, John A. Miller, was born and raised in the Lower Ponds of Jefferson county, now known as Valley Station. Judge Miller was educated in the public schools of Louisville and graduated from the Male High School in 1877. Governor Noel, the present Chief Executive of Mississippi, and Judge Moses N. Hale, a prominent Judge of St. Louis, were his classmates there. In 1878 Judge Miller became a student in the law office of Isaac Caldwell, then the most distinguished lawyer in Kentucky, and while there, graduated at the Louisville Law School in 1878. After sixteen years of active practice he was unanimously elected by the bar in 1896 to succeed Judge Edwards, who had become incapacitated through ill health. At the democratic primary in June, 1897, Judge Miller defeated the late Capt. W. R. Abbott, by a decisive vote, and at the November election of that year he also defeated Humphrey Marshall, his Republican opponent. At the end of his first full term in 1903, Judge Miller was re-elected without opposition, and re-elected over Judge George DuBelle, his Republican opponent, who had been retired from the Court of Appeals the year before.

Again, at the end of his second term in 1909, Judge Miller was renominated by the Democratic party without opposition and was again re-elected over Alex. G. Barrett, Republican.

When it became necessary this Spring to nominate a candidate for Judge of the Court of Appeals Judge Miller had become, by reason of his long service and the death of Judge Emmet Field, the senior Judge of the six circuit judges of the Jefferson Circuit Court. Naturally, he was looked upon as the proper person for the promotion, and his fellow colleagues on the bench, joined in a petition asking him to become a candidate for the nomination. As no one offered for the nomination against Judge Miller, he received it without a contest, and is now making his fifth race before the people.

This long and distinguished judicial service—extending over fifteen years—is certainly an ample and sufficient recommendation in the eyes of all thinking people. Judge Miller is fifty-four years old and is in vigorous health. In 1888 he married Mary Floyd Welman, the daughter of the late Floyd C. Welman, formerly Marshall of the Chancery Court over which Judge Miller now presides. In Judge Miller the people of this district have a rare opportunity of selecting a man in every way qualified by experience, education and ability for the high office of the Court of Appeals. In electing him the people will take no chance as to judicial flightiness or incapacity.

BONDS VOTED

Will Be Of Inestimable Value to Jefferson County.

Will Do More Toward Developing Than Any Proposition Ever Before Submitted, Writes Prof. H. H. Cherry.

Bowling Green, Ky., Oct. 29, 1910.

Editor Jeffersonian: I have been greatly interested in the patriotic campaign that is being made in the interest of better schools in your county. If the proposed plan to vote bonds in your county is accomplished, it will be of inestimable value to your great county and, in my opinion, will do more toward the development of moral, intellectual, and spiritual traits than any proposition that has ever before been submitted to your generous citizenship.

We hear much during this constructive, complex, and strenuous century about a government that will introduce freedom and opportunity to every child in the land; and many programs, platforms, and propositions are presented to us, as though applied and practical free government were a thing to be brought into existence by some magic process, although it were a thing to be put together like a building which should be big enough to hold us all and offer a sweet repose for negative souls. We forget that our government is a spiritual life that must grow and that, if we would attain to a full-grown government, we must attain to a full-grown citizenship, and that, if we would teach, train and articulate with the masses, we must put at the door of every child in the land, whether he live in a hut or mansion, whether he be rich or poor, a school that will offer efficient training for the work of the world. This must be accomplished through the development of a harmonized and articulated school system, reaching from the primary grade to the university, supported by local and State taxation.

When our brave fathers founded this government upon human expression, they embodied the thought of the public school in the organization of the republic. The constitution of the United States contemplates universal education. It makes the public school system and other character making forces a necessity and an implied part of its organism. The constitution is by nature the greatest educational bill that has ever been enacted by a body of people. Its own life and perpetuity depend upon universal intelligence and righteousness. I believe the development of our school system is the most vital question before the people of Kentucky. The world of mind is the field in which the school system works. The school exists for no other purpose except to make good citizens. The work of making men, of transmuting dollars into life, of leading into the stream, of giving them wings, and making them messengers of peace is the greatest work delegated to the hands of men. The public school system is the patriotic organization that seeks to make men.

It is a wise citizenship that realizes that whatever is desired in the life of the State must be developed in the life of those schools that train the children of the State. Behind an efficient commonwealth is an efficient citizenry, behind an efficient citizenry is an efficient school system. The people of a county are not likely to be greater than the schools of the county, and a county is no greater than the people composing the county. In fact, it will take a full-grown citizenship to make a full-grown Jefferson county, and a full-grown public school system to make a full-grown citizenship.

What is true with Jefferson county is, of course, true with every other county in the State. If these things be half true, there is no question of more vital interest to the people of Kentucky than the one of developing better schools. The proposed proposition now pending before your people is in line with modern educational progress and, I am sure, will result in great good, provided you decide to put it into operation. I write this little statement as a result of my interest in the development of a great educational system in our State.

Very truly yours,
H. H. CHERRY,
President State Normal School.

First in Hog Killing.

Oct. 27.—While passing our former friend, Mr. Jacob Spicher, my attention was drawn to something that very much resembled a small beef, but upon close inspection it proved to be a 500-pound hog of Mr. Spicher's own raising. The old reliable butcher, Mr. Jas. Tomlinson, had dressed this porker until he looked good enough to eat without much cooking. Mr. Spicher is first in hog killing as well as most other things, and promises if we would be real good we might taste some of his German "wurst" as soon as it was made. S. D. W.

Miss Drucilla Marshall impersonated the old witch, and with the proverbial broom kept guard over the front door, while up stairs the ghost walked. Hot chocolate, wafers and candies were served to the young folks at a late hour.

Deafness Cannot Be Cured.

By local application of electricity cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, Deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by Catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars free. F. J. CENEY & CO., Toledo, O.

Sold by Druggists, 7c. Take Hall's Family Pills for constipation.

The Kingdom of God—Christ's Kingdom—is founded on love to God and love to man.

The liquor business is founded on love of money, which is the root of all evil. What do the distillers and brewers care so their stuff is sold—who sinks? The liquor business must go or we will be destroyed.

Vote for Dr. J. B. Stroud for Congress

Of course Christ made wine at Cana and Galilee and manifested forth His glory. The wine He made was of water.

What has this to do with the liquor business of today, with its drunkards and drunkard makers, and its following of child labor, white slavery, poverty and crime?

Vote for Dr. J. B. Stroud for Congress

The right to vote is the greatest responsibility any one can have. Mr. Lincoln said: "Nothing is settled till it is settled right."

To vote right is our most solemn duty. On my vote and on your vote depends our own welfare and the welfare of the human race. Let us vote for the Glory of God and the good of our fellowmen.

Mr. Roosevelt says: "There are good Trusts and bad Trusts. The good Trusts must be upheld, the bad Trusts destroyed."

The liquor business is the greatest Trust, and a menace to the human race.

MR. ROOSEVELT IS A PROHIBITIONIST.

What party is responsible for the liquor legislation of the United States? The Republican party.

What party upholds and defends this legislation? The Democratic party.

Who owns both parties? The liquor business.

The man who went from Jerico to Jerusalem and fell among thieves. They left him in the ditch. He is in the ditch yet.

The liquor business is holding him down. They steal his body, his brain and his soul. Christ says: "And I, if I be lifted up, will draw all men after me."

The Roman Catholic priests are the priests that passed him by. The protestant ministers are the Levites who passed him by. They almost all vote the Republican or Democratic ticket. The prohibition party is the good Samaritan to lift him out of the ditch. Christ did not come to regulate the works of the devil, but to destroy them.

Vote for DR. J. B. STROUD and Prohibition.

What is needed by Kentucky?

Christian and industrial education and prohibition.

The people of the United States pay the liquor business per year for their drinks.....$2,000,000,000 They as revenue get back.....325,000,000 Loss per year.....$1,665,000,000 The $325,000,000 is not all the people get back. They get insanity, pauperism and crime, wasted time and wasted lives for their $2,000,000,000 investment.

No wonder we have hard times.

Vote for DR. J. B. STROUD for Congress.

Mr. Roosevelt says, "When your party puts up men and measures that are rotten, you should vote against them." The bible says, "Thou shalt not follow a multitude to do evil." A vote is never lost if it is cast for the right.

You and I shall answer at the judgment for the way our vote is cast.

What is the matter with Kentucky? The liquor business and illiteracy.

"My people perish for lack of knowledge."

Mr. Roosevelt is for conservation of forests, streams and mines, and he is right. But the conservation of men, women and bodies is the greatest saving of all. The liquor business destroys the bodies, minds and souls of men.

Strange to say, the distillers are prohibitionists. If a firm wants a man to go on the road to sell their goods he must be a teetotaler, and if they have forty salesmen, none must drink.

At Trafalgar Nelson signaled, "England expects every man to do his duty." England won over the combined fleets of France and Spain. Today Christ signals for every man to vote right. If every lover of his race and every Christian heeds the signal, Christ will today triumph over the world, the flesh and the devil and the liquor business.

Col. Henry Watterson says, "no Democrat can be a Prohibitionist." No Republican can be a Prohibitionist unless he repents and votes for Dr. J. B. Stroud, Prohibition Candidate for Congress.
